PERFECTION ORANGE WRAPPERS.

Cheapest and best in the market. The only real Orange protector. Perfect absorbant of all moisture. Non-conductor of heat and cold, and

Free From All Chemicals.

We have given our special attention for the past year to produce an Orange Wrapper that would be low price and economical, also a protection to the Orange and not an injury to the fruit. (Chemical prepared papers are injurious to the Orange, causing decay and rot.) As to the cost of the Perfection Orange Wrapper, it is much cheaper than any other Orange Wrapper in the market. The Perfection Orange Wrapper has been highly indorsed and recommended by the leading fruit growers.

Apache child, Geronimo, has been captured. Hang him!

A woman suffrage is going into effect in Kentucky with a favorable report.

The Buckeye Bank of Pasadena is in financial trouble. It has failed.

A. CAMPBELL, of Oakland, has been dropped from the contest for the democratic nomination for City Marshal.

Reports to the Mexican reports coming Captain Crawford's Indian scouts are very little better than an organized and officered band of Apaches.

Lieutenant Colonel Officer Wetmore has called a meeting of representatives of the Governors of the United States, to be held in Washington to-morrow evening. It is for the purpose of urging upon Congress the necessity for the protection and reclamation of Yellowstone Park.

The Widow of Nain prevailed by the power of her much speaking. The Pasadena officials have followed the example, and who says they are not going to prevail also? The country has been given a chance at the next presidential election to vote on a woman for vice president.

There is another hard freeze-up in the Northwest, with the thermometer 40 degrees below zero on the Northern Pacific railway, and ranging into some ornamental figures down to twelve degrees below at Chicago. "Tender nit blitzen," genielike, goes to California! Come and experience and ice cream.

The New York Tribune says, in describing the President's reasons for "no cause," the Senate is not capable of obstruction. It simply wants to know why! Republican soldiers were pelted with mud and stones and pitched out. They were ready to go in, but what was the reason for calling them a bad character among the Republicans? The Senate is maintaining a gentleman's simplest right, and it will be well maintained.

The Commissioners of Langell Valley (Oregon) have been resorted to a novel plan for getting rid of coyotes. They soak wheat in strychnine, and then feed it to the winged animals which in turn become beastly drunk, and are easily captured. Acres of wheat could be captured in Los Angeles county, at this season, by the same people, if it is really as effective as said. But the enterprising hunters would not have to take out a $50 license before commencing operations. Perhaps the League of Freedom?

EX-PRESIDENT MCKINLEY reports to the Treasury that City Tax Collector Parcels has acted entirely within the law in refusing to fees and perquisites which would have exclusively amounted to over $6000 per year, and which are expected this year to reach $10,000. The fee ordinance, the subject gave the Tax Collector no emoluments, which must not exceed $2000 per year. A later exercise of legislative discretion, not particularly or by design omitted, if closely repealed, this important section; and now if Mr. Parcels is able to realize $100,000 a year from the office, the city could only whistle for the rest. It is too late for any legislation which can effect Mr. Parcels's year, but right now is a good time for the Council to stick a pin in the proposition, that hereafter no city officer shall receive a salary so enormously disproportionate. Let the game have a limit.

GENERAL DAVID HUNTER, U. S. A., died at Washington, D. C., on Feb. 2. He was one of the most prominent and most remarkable officers of the War of the Rebellion. Only years before the war broke out David Hunter was a captain of dragoons serving on the plains of the Far West. He fought in Mexico, and proved his country with gallantry and distinction in the last war. Early in the contest he took advanced ground in the slavery question, declaring for emancipation before President Lincoln or the country were ready for it. He lived in Missouri, in South Carolina and in Virginia. Moving from post to post, he made the celebrated Lynch-law campaign in 1864, threatening to confiscations and supply bases in the rebel army at Richmond so serious as to cause the Confederate government to detach heavily from their army for the defense of the capital and beleaguered rebel capital. His army made one of the boldest and most rapid, most arduous, and most effective secondary campaigns of the whole war, and received warm commendation of General Grant for its work on that occasion. General Hunter was a unique and charming character, to describe which adequately would take much space.

AMUSEMENTS.

OLIVE HAVENSIDE.—This emotional actress whose success in San Francisco was tremendous, will make her first appearance in Los Angeles next Monday at the Grand Opera House, producing The New Camille. During the week she will be changed nightly, and the following strong repertoire will be presented: Fanny, East Lynne, Heartsease, Frou-Frou, Miss Multon, Fashion and Oliver Twist. Matinee will be given on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons. Miss Havenside has a large and carefully selected dramatic company, who have been constantly associated with her for the past eighteen months, and will present a powerful novel feature of being composed of entirely new faces, none of them having appeared on this coast before.

THE CITY WATER COMPANY

Presents a Sworn Statement of Its Business.

The Los Angeles City Water Company has followed in the wake of V. Kremer, in submitting to Council a list of the expenses and statement of its receipts and expenditures for 1885. It also does, as did he, that Council hasn't any right, you know, to demand any such thing, but they'll just give it sooner or later, perhaps. According to the sworn statement, the total receipts were $146,816.16, and the expenditures $146,816.16. The receipts for water rents alone were $103,000. The list of consumers covered 117 pages, and by a TIMES reporter's actual count, footed up 3224

Our Big Basement Salesroom

Is now open to the public. We have now

DOUBLE THE ROOM

And a perfect light in both rooms. The ventilation has been vastly improved.

A NEW CASH SYSTEM

The most perfect in use in this country, has been added. The interior of our house has been repainted and papered, and a general cleaning up for a big year's business has just been completed. Our Basement will be devoted to cheap goods, odds and ends and job lots from auction. Our main room will be cleared of all undesirable goods and marked down and placed on sale in our Basement at a price that will make them move.

It will Pay You to Visit Us This Week

THE PEOPLE'S STORE'S SURPRISE SALE.

We have enjoyed a remarkable patronage last week. Well, who wouldn't, offering such inducements? This week they will be even greater. We will give you a $1 50 black silk for 98c, and a $2 55 black silk for $1 24.

Our 34-inch Duchess satins will be sold for 75c, and our $1 75 velvets will be sold for $1.

We have 10 pieces of black brocaded silk, heavy lustre and all silk that we will offer at $1. They are cheap at $2.

We will sell our satin Berbers, 42-inch goods, that sold for $1 25, for 50c.

Our English diagonals, 44-inch goods, we'll sell for 50c. Both these lots are all wool, and worth fully double what we ask for them.

Just think of the reduction! 36-inch picabes, our $2 75 goods, we'll sell for $1 75. A full line of black and colored dress silks, 20 to 22 inches wide, we'll sell for 84c.

DURING THE ENTIRE WEEK

We will sell you a 500-bone French woven corset that is sold in every store of this town for $1 75, for $1 25. We will also sell the best and most serviceable corset tobe found for $1.

In hosiery we have laid out 100 dozen of ladies' full finished, extra heavy Balbriggan hose for 25c a pair. Infant's striped hose, five pairs for 25c, and ladies' solid color hose, nice goods, 10c.

You make a great mistake when you pass by our Clothing Department. It is the cheapest department in the house. We have odd sizes in suits for $1 50, $2, $3 and $5 00. Then we give you suits for 3.25, 3.75 and 4.25. If you look at our goods and prices you'll buy, because it means a saving of dollars to you.

The People's Store's trade is not founded on jawbone. It takes bone and sinew to keep up a healthy constitution. When you go into our shoe department you find the rule of economy exemplified. We can do better for you in this department than any house on this coast. We will sell this week a splendid article in a ladies' lace glove kid shoe for 75c. This shoe is worth 2.50. We will give you a kid lined opera toe slipper for 1.00, and a low cut Newport for 98c. A pebble goat or a glove calf button for 1.50, and for 3.75 we will sell our regular 4.50 French kid. Child's pebble goat button, spring heel, cap toe, 8, 9, 95c. Child's six kid button boot 60c; you pay 1.00 for the same shoe. Misses' glove kid shoe, the most desirable made, 11 to 2, 1.50. In misses' six kid we have a splendid article for 1.75.

TALK IS CHEAP

And a good deal can be and is said on paper that's mere buncombe, and is done by others in the hope of catching a few unwary customers. We always stand by our assertions. We advertise to sell and seek the best medium to acquaint people of our bargains. What we advertise we have, and want you to come and see it. No one comes into our shoe department that is not suited. Our prices are cheaper than anyone's, because we buy more, we sell more; we buy cheaper because we pay spot cash, and there isn't another house in the line in town does it, and the best of all reasons, that we are satisfied with a profit that means starvation to others. We will show you the best bargains this week ever exhibited in this town. Special notices will appear in the local columns daily.

NEW DIRECTORY

—FOR—

Los Angeles City and County.

Having had a large experience in the Directory Publishing Business, the undersigned respectfully announce to the citizens of Los Angeles that they are engaged in a thorough canvass of the city and county for the names of residents for their new Directory. We ask the co-operation of all in the work of making the directory of names as perfect as the rapidly increasing and incessantly changing population will permit.

The book will contain a complete Street Directory, a Horse Car Directory and Cable Car Directory.

Full particulars of all Churches, Schools and Societies, together with the information always to be found in first-class city directories.

NEW FEATURES.

In addition to the usual matter of a Directory, there will be a full description of all the Public and Private Institutions of the city and county, as well as a truthfully written Sketch of the Leading Business Houses and business interests.

A NEW COUNTY MAP.

Will be given with each copy of the Directory. The map, prepared by the well-known publisher, J. H. Stevenson, of this city, will have upon its margins the names, business and address of every subscriber to and advertiser in the Directory, and will be suitable for hanging on the wall.

FIFTEEN HUNDRED COPIES

Of the book and map have been contracted for. The work to be done in the very best style of the art. Of these, 1200 copies will be distributed in the hotels and reading-rooms of the Pacific Coast, and 150 copies in the leading hotels of the Eastern States and Canada. Thus placing before the whole country, in a handsomely bound, substantial volume, the business and general interests of Los Angeles in an attractive and reliable form, where it will remain for many years.

We ask a liberal patronage from the business men, pledging them in return a Directory of which they will be justly proud.

Our agents are all gentlemen of culture and ability, and we bespeak for them a cordial reception.

Persons or firms making changes in business or residence after they have been canvassed, should report the changes to us, and they shall be carefully attended to.

CONGRESS.

Dispute Between President and Senate

EMBODIED IN LONG RESOLUTIONS.

The Electoral Count Bill—Decorations for an American—Eulogies Pronounced on Hendricks in the House.

Associated Press Dispatches to the Times.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—Mr. Riddleberger offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That it is the sense of the Senate that the Executive of the United States is not restricted by constitutional law in removing or suspending appointees; that the Senate has no right to require that reasons shall be given for such removals or suspensions; that it is the right of the Senate to call for any documents relating to the conduct of removed or suspended appointees, or to the qualifications and fitness of all persons whose names are presented to the Senate for confirmation or rejection, and it is the duty of the Executive to comply with all demands for the same.

After a short debate, Mr. Pugh submitted a substitute to take the place of Mr. Riddleberger's resolution, and asked that it be presented and lie over till to morrow. Mr. Pugh's substitute is as follows:

First—That the executive power is expressly vested by the constitution in the President of the United States, so that he shall take care that the laws be faithfully executed.

Second—That the power of appointment to federal office is an executive power to be exercised by the President, under the limitation in the constitution, that he shall nominate, and by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall appoint.

Third—That the power of removal, a suspension from the powers and duties of a federal office, is also an executive power, vested exclusively in the President without any such limitation in the constitution as is imposed thereby on the power of appointment, and for the exercise he is responsible alone to the people, not to the Senate.

Fourth—That the right of the President to make nominations to the Senate and of the Senate to advise and consent thereto are each separate and independent rights to be exercised by the President and Senate, respectively, and separately and independently within their absolute discretion, and it is not competent for persons so nominated the Senate may request information of the President affecting the character and qualifications of these as to whose appointment he asks the advice and consent of the Senate.

Fifth—That, whenever the President makes nominations to the Senate of persons to be appointed by him to take exercise of the powers and duties of federal officers who have been removed or suspended by him, no law, public duty or public policy requires that he shall report or communicate to the Senate any cause, reason or information within his own knowledge or contained in the power of others, petitions, papers or documents addressed to him or any member of his Cabinet, or possession of either, and relating to the subject of removals or suspensions, or containing charges, causes or reasons and proof thereof for making such removals or suspensions, and to say, as he may, that public policy requires or authorizes the Senate to call for such information relating in any such form to the President or any member of his Cabinet, to enable the Senate to review or question the action of the President in exercising his executive, discretionary and exclusive power of removing or suspending federal officers from powers and duties of their officers, or to put the President on trial by the Senate, or to enforce an accountability to the Senate for anything he may have done in the exercise of such jurisdiction.

Sixth—That, to obtain information considered by either House of Congress useful in passing necessary and proper laws, either House of Congress may request the President, not deemed by him incompatible with the public interest, to give any information within his knowledge, or contained in any public document or records on file in or in the lawful custody of any of the departments and relating to the administration of any public office, or affecting the official endines or duties of any public officer, but for the Senate to make such request of the President, or to command any member of his Cabinet to transmit to the Senate any information or any public documents or papers in relation to which in open or executive session to review the propriety or reason or the information for the sake of which he has acted or refused in making removals or suspensions, would be an attempt to obtain such information for the purpose of unlawful uses and purposes not authorized or justified by any law, or public policy of the United States, and should the President grant such request or require any officers of his Cabinet to obey such direction from the Senate when deemed by him to be made for such unjustifiable purposes, uses and purposes, would be to recognize and encourage an improper practice and to establish a precedent for future oppressive and independent rights, powers and duties as President of the United States.

Mr. Ingalls gave notice that, when the original and substitute resolutions should come up to-morrow, he would move to refer them to the Committee on Privileges and Elections for further consideration. The resolution, according to the request, was laid over until to-morrow.

The next bill on the calendar was a bill to permit the United States Marshal, Warsaw, Russia, to accept certain decorations tendered him by the Russian government. (The Consul is a Russian subject and not an American citizen.)

Mr. Edmunds, Mr. Ingalls and Mr. Logan opposed the bill and Mr. Morgan spoke in its favor.

Mr. Logan evoked applause from the galleries by his remarks, concluding as follows: "Let the decoration of the American citizen be his daily walk and his demeanor toward his fellow men. That is the only decoration that an American citizen should, in my opinion, wear."

The Electoral Count bill then came up, and Mr. Evarts took the floor. He favored recommitment of the bill to the committee. He thought a section should be added to the bill making it the duty of the Governor of each State, under seal of the State, as soon as practicable after the final act of the State in electoral appointment, to communicate to the United States government the result of that process. This communication should show the names of persons elected or appointed as electors, and what votes had been cast for such persons respectively. Mr. Evarts was satisfied if this was done the difficulties surrounding the question of counting the votes would disappear, for we should have the highest public authority showing the final act of a State in the election.

Mr. Teller denied the right of Congress to submit this question to the Supreme Court. The question Who are the electors for any given State? was a question for the State alone, and Mr. Teller therefore favored leaving to the government of each State the matter of certificates. He proposed an amendment to the effect that, in case of non-concurrence of the two houses, and in case such non-concurrence (and consequent failure to count the vote of a State) resulted in taking away the majority required by the Constitution, or when by not counting the vote of a State, an election should be had of a person different from the person who would be elected if the vote were counted—that in these two emergencies it should be declared that there was no election, and that the House of Representatives should make an election as required by the Constitution.

Mr. Evarts submitted as an amendment that it should be the duty of the Executive of each State, as soon as practicable after the final ascertainment of the appointment of electors in such State, to communicate, under seal of the State, to the Secretary of State of the United States a certificate showing the result of the ascertainment, setting forth the names of electors and other particulars, and deliver to the electors of such State similar certificates in triplicate, such certificates to be transmitted by the electors, with the result of their own action.

Mr. Edmunds opposed the motion to recommit, but it struck him that Mr. Evarts had suggested an amendment which embodied an extremely valuable idea. It could be discussed in Senate, however, as well as in committee. After further debate the motion to recommit was brought to a vote and resulted—yeas, 30; nays, 22; the affirmative being about equally divided between Republicans and Democrats. All proposed amendments went with the bill.

The Dakota bill was then placed before the Senate, and Mr. Logan obtained the floor, but gave way for an executive session, after which the Senate adjourned.

The resolutions of Mr. Riddleberger and Mr. Pugh, as to the relations between the President and Senate, will come up for consideration in the morning hour to-morrow, and Mr. Logan will have the floor at 2 o'clock on the Dakota bill.

Among the measures favorably reported from committees was the joint resolution by Mr. Blair, from the Committee on Woman Suffrage, providing for a constitutional amendment extending the right of suffrage to women to the unanimous judgment of the committee, and that the minority reserved the right to present a written report in opposition to the measure.

House.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 2.—Immediately after the reading of the journal, Holman offered the following:

Resolved, That the House of Representatives has received with profound sorrow intelligence of the death of Thomas A. Hendricks, late Vice-President of the United States.

Resolved, That the business of the House be suspended in order that the eminent services and private virtues of the deceased may be appropriately commemorated.

Resolved, That the Clerk of the House be directed to communicate these resolutions to the Senate.

Mr. Bynum, who represents the district which formerly returned Hendricks to the House of Representatives, was the first speaker to bear testimony to the worth of the dead statesman. He reviewed the life of Hendricks through childhood, youth and manhood, showing in every stage the manifest ability and talent which made his name familiar to every household in the land. Hendricks was no ordinary man. He was one of the few great men whose greatness increased and whose sublimity became more sublime the nearer he was approached. He was an honest man. Suspicion never breathed a calumny against his integrity. He passed through the fiery furnace of public life without a scar. His station, to fitly represent him, should be chiseled in spotless white marble. He daily practiced the greatest of all virtues, charity.

Mr. Brown, of Indiana, as a political opponent of Mr. Hendricks bore witness to his sterling qualities of heart and mind. He was, without challenge, the chief representative of Indiana Democracy. If he did not formulate its policy he accepted it as true faith. If he did not go before, he went well abreast of party alignment. He went into the thickest of the fight, congratulated his forces in victory, or in defeat covered their retreat. He was not a political boss. He governed without a whip or bastile. He was a king, but reigned by common consent and made his subjects his peers. He was ever true to himself, true to his honor. No temptation beguiled to venality, no dishonest dollar ever touched the palm of his hand.

Messrs. Kelner and Holman, as representatives of the commonwealth which knew and loved Mr. Hendricks best, closed the eulogies with brief addresses descriptive of the public and private virtues of the dead statesman, and then the resolutions were unanimously adopted and the House adjourned.

LAWLESS SCOUTS.

Some New Light on the Recent Conflict Between Mexican and United States Troops.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—Officials of Sonora, Mexico, have complained of the conduct of Indian scouts who made up the force of Captain Crawford, recently killed while in pursuit of hostile Apaches, and it is probable that the feeling of animosity entertained by Mexicans towards the scouts will throw some light on the encounter between Captain Crawford's command and the Mexican troops. It is alleged that the scouts, when not directly under the eye of their officer, committed outrages upon Mexican ranches, robbed their settlements, wantonly killed their cattle, and in several instances murdered travelers and others whom they met. There is also alleged to be strong reason reported that the outrages committed by them were the work of the hostiles whom they were pursuing, although the evidence pointed to the contrary as the guilty parties. Details of several of these alleged outrages are given, with dates and the extent of damage done. It is now charged that these outrages were known to Captain Crawford and his officers, but, on the contrary, were committed while the scouts were pretending to be hunting hostiles, and were beyond the immediate knowledge and control of their officers. It is now thought that, in consequence of these outrages by scouts, the attack by Mexican troops was not accidental, but deliberate.

The Constitution, official organ of the State of Sonora, in detailing these outrages upon Mexican settlements, says: "As long as the scouts keep directly under the eyes of their officers they behave, to some extent, but the moment they find themselves out of sight the license is frequently, from the very nature of the expedition, they carry out the natural fiendishness of their nature, and are hunted like Apaches bear to the Mexicans."

The Constitution calls upon the general government to forbid the introduction into Mexico of Indian scouts or auxiliaries of American troops in pursuit of Apaches, or to stop entirely the crossing of the boundary by American forces.

GERONIMO SURRENDERS.

EL PASO, Tex., Feb. 2.—Major Robinson, army paymaster, received a dispatch from Fort Bayard, New Mexico, to-day, which stated that a courier just arrived there, brought a message from the Lango ranch, which contained information of the unconditional surrender of the Apache chief, Geronimo, to Lieutenant Maus, who succeeded the late Captain Crawford.

A FATAL SMASH

Caused by the Criminal Negligence of Brakeman Vie.

SCRANTON, Pa., Feb. 2.—A disastrous collision occurred on the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad here at 1 o'clock this morning. The night express train ran into a freight train on the siding and completely wrecked both trains. Fireman Giddings, of Richmond, was killed, his body being terribly scalded and mutilated. Z. Lowrie had his throat cut and his arm scalded. His condition is dangerous. Chas. Smith, engineer of the freight train, had his back badly sprained and his body bruised. The only passenger hurt was Dr. Lafferty, of Richmond, who was standing in the sleeping-car, and was knocked down and bruised, but not seriously. The accident was caused by criminal negligence. The freight train was on the side-track, awaiting the arrival of the express. The conductor told the brakeman, Samuel Vie, that when the express passed he should turn the switch. Vie went to sleep, and was aroused by a passing freight train. He changed the switch just as the express came in sight, and before the fatal error was discovered the train dashed on the siding and the engines locked, the two boilers being jammed together.

Drowned.

STOCKTON, Feb. 2.—I. B. Christenson, civil engineer, employed on Roberts Island, and one Chinaman were drowned on the break in the levee, were drowned this afternoon. Christensen and four Chinamen were in a boat on the river and were carried by the current into a break in the levee, where the boat capsized. Two Chinamen caught a rope and were hauled out, and the third was rescued by men in a boat. The bodies of the drowned have not yet been found. Christensen had been employed on Roberts Island several years in engineering work. He was single and about 40 years old.

High License Defeated in Redwood.

REDWOOD CITY, Feb. 2.—A motion to raise liquor license in this county to $50 a quarter was defeated at a meeting of the Board to-day by a vote of 3 to 2. The license is now $15 per quarter.

Sugar Refinery Failure.

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—A Post special from Halifax says: The suspension of the Nova Scotia Sugar Refining Company is announced, with liabilities $500,000, of which $25,000 is due to the Merchants' Bank, of Halifax.

Surveyor General Dement Makes Elaborate Denials—Is He in a Tight Place?—Viticultural Meeting Called.

Associated Press Dispatches to the Times.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—C. A. Wetmore has called a meeting of all interested in viticulture for Thursday night, when he expects that a representative from every State in which the wine-growing industry has assumed any proportions will be present. Senator Stanford has been asked to preside on the occasion and will do so if in the city.

WILL INVESTIGATE IT.

The Department of State has directed an investigation to be made of the circumstances attending the killing of Captain Crawford on the 11th ult. by Mexican troops.

AN ADVERSE REPORT.

The House Committee on Banking and Currency to-day directed an adverse report to be made on Representative Seney's bill to make shareholders in national banks individually responsible for debts of their bank.

SURVEYOR GENERAL DEMENT BEFORE A COMMITTEE.

Surveyor General Dement, of Utah, was examined by the Senate Committee on Public Lands to-day, with reference to the recent publications which embodied alleged utterances of his implicating Senators, members of Congress and high executive officials in Washington and in Utah in extensive conspiracies to misappropriate public lands for their own benefit, and in conspiracies to influence by bribery legislation affecting the Mormons. Dement denied the statement attributed to him without reservation.

He said he had never stated that he took four detectives to Utah, and did not, in fact, take them. He did not state that fifty per cent. of the land entries were fraudulent. He made no statement about mineral lands being entered as homesteads. He did not state that there was a ring, including all federal officials from Governor down. He had made no discovery to warrant any such statement. He had discovered nothing which would implicate Governor Murray or any other official in Utah or Idaho. He never stated that any Western Republican Senator received $25,000 for opposing the Edmunds bill, nor that several Democratic members of the House had received several thousand dollars for services of the same sort.

The newspaper men who sent out the interviews which Surveyor General Dement repudiates will ask the Public Land Committee of the Senate to grant them a hearing, in order that they may vindicate themselves and give the sources of their information.

SUDDEN DEATH OF GEN. HUNTER.

General David Hunter, U. S. A., retired, died suddenly this afternoon at his residence in this city. He was in his usual good health this morning, and made several visits down town during the afternoon. On returning, he complained of a pain in his abdomen, and had to be assisted to bed. He died in a few minutes. He was a veteran of the Mexican war, and also served with distinction in the late war. He was retired in 1866, after being severely wounded in several engagements. He was President of the military court that tried Mrs. Surratt.

APPOINTED SPECIAL AGENT.

General Theodore S. West, of Wisconsin, has been appointed Special Agent of the Treasury Department for the Fourteenth District, comprising the States of California and Oregon and the Territories of Washington and Alaska, with headquarters at San Francisco.

WILL INVESTIGATE.

The Committee on Expenditures in the Department of Justice will, on Thursday, begin an investigation of the telephone cases, as authorized by the House of Representatives.

NATIONAL ENCAMPMENT FOR SAN FRANCISCO

Commander-in-Chief Burdette, of the Grand Army of the Republic, telegraphed this evening, to Commander Kelly, of San Francisco, that the national encampment of the G. A. R. will be held in San Francisco, Tuesday, April 6, 1886.

ANTI-CHINESE.

A Boycott Recommended in Santa Rosa—Other Local Items.

SANTA ROSA, Feb. 2.—Armory rink was crowded Monday evening for further consideration of the Chinese question. The committee of fifteen, who were appointed by the President of the club at the last meeting, read their report. Lawful and mild means were advised. A petition was circulated in the audience which was generally signed, to the effect that they would pledge themselves not to patronize or employ any Chinese after March 1st, only so far as possible, in buying goods, would always give their preference to those manufactured by the Caucasian race. Speeches were made by Hon. G. A. Johnson, Hon. J. T. Campbell and several others. Hon. G. A. Johnson, Hon. J. T. Campbell and J. I. Allen were elected to attend the Anti-Coolie Convention which meets at San Jose, February 4th. Twelve delegates will be sent from the county to attend the convention; the other nine will be chosen from other parts.

AT POINT TIBURON.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 2.—A mass meeting was held at Point Tiburon last night, and the Chinese were given ten days to leave town. Proprietors of fish-houses were waited on and gave a willing assent to dismiss Chinese employés, which they did to-day. There are about fifty Chinese at Point Tiburon.

NO CHINAMEN IN GOLD RUN.

GOLD RUN, Cal., Feb. 2.—The citizens of Gold Run having notified the Chinese to depart, the last one went yesterday.

WILL ORDER THEM OUT OF ST. HELENA.

ST. HELENA, Feb. 2.—An anti-Chinese meeting was held here last night. The citizens will hold a mass meeting to-day, and have a procession to Chinatown, where the Mongolians will be ordered to leave inside of ten days. The conservative element of the community are against hasty action on the subject. Trouble is feared. A large number of Chinamen arrived from Sonoma recently, and many are engaged in vineyard work, now under full headway.

A BILLIARD BLUFF

Issued by the Victorious Mr. Schaefer.

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—Jacob Schaefer, the billiard expert, to-day issued the following: "Mr. Maurice Vignaux's backer, Mr. John Dowling, having declined to make good the challenge to me to play Maurice Vignaux a return-match after such challenge had been duly accepted by me and my backers, I hereby announce my willingness to play Mr. Vignaux or any other man in the world a match game of 3,000 points at 14-inch balk-line, for $5,000 a side, under the express condition that the winner shall take all receipts and the loser pay all expenses incidental to the match. I prefer Vignaux as an opponent, and should he or his backer be unable to secure $5,000 stake-money to wager, I am willing to play for $1,000 a side with the same binding condition, that the winner shall take all receipts and the loser pay all expenses."

Miners Out of a Job.

CITY OF MEXICO, (via Galveston), Feb. 2.—Reports from the mineral region of Pachuses, in the State of Hidalgo, are that several thousand silver miners are out of work, owing to the action of the companies in stopping operations, by way of reply to the State government, which refuses to repeal the export tax of 2 per cent. on silver.

Mrs. Bayard's Funeral.

WILMINGTON, Feb. 2.—The funeral of Mrs. Bayard occurred at the old Swedish Church to-day. The same pallbearers who followed the daughter's coffin two weeks ago followed the mother to her last resting place.

ANOTHER FREEZE-UP.

The Third Cold Wave of the Season in the Northwest.

CHICAGO, Feb. 2.—The mercury dropped below zero here again last night, the signal service reporting the minimum at 4 degs. below, though private observations made it from 10 to 12 degs. below. The weather is reported very cold throughout Minnesota, Dakota and Manitoba, the mercury dropping to 26 below at St. Paul and to 48 below at Minnedosa, on the Canadian Pacific Railway.

SNOW-STORM IN THE SOUTHWEST.

GALVESTON, Feb. 3.—Meager intelligence from Northern Texas, up to midnight, reports a heavy snow-storm prevailing over Indian Territory and extending south and west into Texas. At Eulasia Station, on the Missouri Pacific, about midway north and south in the Indian Nation, snow was five inches deep at sundown. Trains from the north are delayed and telegraphic communication is interrupted. Harold reports it snowing in the Panhandle country, and that great suffering and loss among stock must follow. The extent of the storm throughout Texas will probably not be known for a couple of days. It is blustering and rainy here, but no cold wave comparative to the January blizzard has reached Galveston.

DESPERATE MUTINY.

How the Frank N. Thayer was Captured and Burned.

LONDON, Feb. 2.—Captain Clark, of the American ship Frank N. Thayer, has arrived at Plymouth, on the Cape steamer, by which he was picked up at sea. He relates that the Thayer was found for England, with a mixed crew, including two Manila seamen. These two men stole on me at night and, armed with knives lashed to poles, attacked the two officers, killing them instantly. Three sailors, the only ones on deck, were quickly dispatched. Captain Clark, hearing the shrieks of the crew, rushed on deck in his nightshirt. The Manilans slashed him terribly, and he barely escaped with his life. After a desperate struggle he broke away from his assailants, and rushing to his cabin, locked himself in. The Manilans battered down the hatches and kept the captain and crew below deck one day and night. The captain finally fired through the skylight at one of the mutineers and wounded him in the thigh. The man rushed to the side of the vessel and leaped overboard. The other mutineer then went below and fired the cargo, and, returning to the deck, jumped into the sea, following his companion. The crew remained

Will Not Send It East.

The directors of the Northern California Citrus Fair have concluded not to send their exhibit to Chicago. The Sacramento Record-Union urges that, in this respective action, they are wise. The reasons therefor are thus given:

Because the exhibits are not in a fit condition for such removal.

Because they cannot be properly replenished, the best of our fruits being gone, and recent heavy rains having depreciated the keeping qualities of the fag-ends and remnants of the crop, which are all that can now be had.

The oranges of the Riverside growers—who are a well-organized and wealthy body—are already in the markets, the picking season is approaching its greatest activity, and the fruits will be rapidly sent eastward to supply the demand stimulated by the Florida disaster.

The Riverside people are preparing for an early exhibition at the East of their best fruits and will send them in abundance. These will be exhibited in their prime.

No amount of explanation at the East would counterbalance the inevitable judgment that our fruits were sent on to stand the test of comparison as to quality, instead of being intended only to testify to the ability of Northern California to grow citrus fruits.

The Southern California Eastern exhibit was long since arranged, and for this section to withdraw its exhibits East would have been a direct invitation to comparison on our part, and not on the part of our southern rivals.

Finally, it is by more than a month too late to make a northern exhibit at the East such as we can and should make to establish the fact that our fruits are ready for market long before those of Southern California.

A NEW YORK letter to the Philadelphia Record says that there was a unique dinner given the other evening at Delmonico's to some fifteen of the Corn Pearls of New York—elegant, lazy, luxurious creatures, who are born to flutter in the golden sunlight and perish in the glare. The feast was spread by a "gentleman" who is identified with the ferries and railroads of the metropolis—the inheritor of millions from a father who never expended a dollar in luxury. Hand-painted cards, with the assumed name of each dainty beauty upon them, flanked by exquisite little bontonnieres, were a feature in the table adornment, and under each plate was a valuable ring, the stone being selected to correspond with the wearer's particular style of beauty. It was a notable banquet, says the letter writer, marked by a little too much style, an over-scented atmosphere, and a luxurious laziness which spoke volumes "for the reason why the crop of Corn Pearls never diminishes. Laziness has more to do with it than passion, and a love of luxury is another cogent factor in the problem. The scarlet woman in fine clothes sometimes clandestinely gains entrance into society, only to be expelled when society discovers the trap set for it.

THE Stockton Independent says:

While orange-growers in Southern and Southern California are displaying samples of their fruit, there is no grower in this section who has been thoughtful enough to sandwich in samples of the valley orange. In a small garden on El Dorado street in this city large, fine oranges are raised which compare favorably with the best productions of Southern California.

There is no reasonable question about the possibility of raising oranges in parts of Northern and Central California; the real point is, can they be raised successfully upon a considerable scale? can they be raised profitably as a crop? This remains to be demonstrated as to the northern part of the State, while, as to Southern California, it is no longer a problem. Orange-growing is an established industry here, and, under right conditions, a profitable industry.

It is encouraging to note the universal faith felt in the future of Los Angeles. This belief in the future of this section is not confined to residents. It is shared by those who come to us as strangers and tourists. They have with us one faith in our glorious future. The development of Los Angeles has been marvelous within the past few years; it will be even more phenomenal in the coming ones. Our ratio of increase will be larger, our development more rapid, and our growth more complete and harmonious. There will be no more of one-sided growth, no more of weakness in one direction and of strength in another. Our advance is to be permanent, rapid and entire. Our improvement will be in the line of metropolitan ideas and needs, and there will be no question as regards our place in the front rank of growing cities.

THE Oakland Enquirer rises to ask: "How is this for the wind-up of a speech?

"'Democracy is a sentiment not to be appalled, corrupted or compromised. It knows no baseness; it cowers to no danger; it oppresses no weakness; it is obstructive of despotism; it is the sole conservator of liberty, labor and property; it is the equal sentiment of equal rights, of equal obligations, the very law of Nature itself pervading the land.'"

Fine as a bit of romance, but as a statement of fact it is an ignominious failure, if you mean the Democracy of 1860-1885, inclusive.]

IRA G. HORTY, of San Francisco, will be a candidate for the next Republican nomination for State Superintendent of Public Instruction. He has resided in San Francisco for twenty-one years, is a graduate of Dartmouth College, is an old teacher, has been Principal of the Lincoln School of San Francisco, was a member of the Assembly in 1881–'82, and Chairman of the House Committee on Education, and as such stood by Los Angeles in her successful effort to secure a branch Normal School. Mr. Hoitt would seem to have a very good case.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

SANTA ANA.

Correspondence of the TIMES.]

SANTA ANA, Jan. 27.—The late rains did but little damage in this region. The dam that was built two years ago across the new channel of the Santa Ana, to turn the water back into the old channel, gave way, and the country below was flooded for a short time, but little damage was done as the water soon receded and confined itself to the channel.

The roads are fearfully muddy, and yet the people will travel, hence they are getting worse by being so badly cut up.

The slow plodding stage coach is again brought into use, as the breaks in the railroad in and around Los Angeles prevent our cars from reaching us. Last Sunday it required the dailies for the previous week and none have arrived since, owing to the fact, I suppose, that the papers are brought usually by express and no express comes now. We are all anxious to hear again the whistle of the engine and to get the world's news each day.

Some business changes have occurred since the new year. Bundy & McFadden have mutually dissolved business relations in the hardware trade and each has set up for himself. Marquis & West are the successors of Mr. Stapleton in his notion and music store.

Since the Florida cold snap there have been quite a number in the field trying to buy oranges. Prices are tending upward.

The masons are still at work on the Gage Block.

The Santa Ana and Tustin-street railroad is soon to materialize, if talk and money will start it. The present mud in that region shows the necessity for it.

Hay is getting scarce and prices are tending upward.

The weather has been pleasant for the past few days, and our weather prophet says not much more rain until next moon.

NEWTON.

Another Letter.

Correspondence of the TIMES.

SANTA ANA, Jan. 28.—Santa Ana or its surroundings have not been damaged by the late rain. The report in the Express, on Tuesday, to the effect that the bridges, etc., in the Santa Ana valley are all demolished by the late storm, is without any foundation of truth. It ought to be enough for any journal to report the full extent done to any section, without trying to add insult to injury.

This valley has not received more rain than is wanted, and, in fact, more will do good, and other than a little inconvenience from the obstruction of the railroad we have not been damaged at all, and the damage to the railroad is nothing this side of New River.

Our streets are muddy, but not more so than our queen city, Los Angeles.

Our masons are busy, pushing upwards the several brick blocks in course of erection, and carpenters are all busy at present finishing the fine large blocks just roofed.

Our street railway, which is to lead, on one side, to Orange, and on the other to Tustin City, is now an established fact, as you, of course, are aware. The company has been incorporated, officers elected, assessments made, and everything is being done to push the work forward to completion at an early date.

We did not get the Times again on Tuesday, and if anything will cause a commotion in Santa Ana it is to miss our much-prized Daily Times.

We are now having delightful weather, and plows, cultivators, etc., are running at full speed. The outlook is splendid in this valley for a bountiful crop.

The Board of Library Regents met in Council chamber yesterday at 2 o'clock, President Spence in the chair.

Minutes read and approved.

The Librarian, Miss Jessie A. Gavitt, reported as follows for January: Books loaned, 1316; new books added, 23; receipts, $108.90; expenditures, $106.70.

Mr. Stearns was opposed to having an assistant librarian; but Dr. Sinsabaugh brought out the facts that the office was created by resolution of February 4, 1884, which empowered the Librarian to choose her own assistant, and that an assistant is necessary from the fact that the library is kept open from 9 a. m. to 9:30 p. m. every day.

The matter was finally referred to a committee of three, Messrs. Santee, Biscailuz and Perry.

The Finance Committee recommended that hereafter the Librarian pay the janitor out of her own salary. [The city has hitherto allowed $15 per month for janitor.] Carried.

Adjourned at 2:45.

MORAN-HOGAN.

A Brilliant Wedding at the Cathedral Yesterday.

The Cathedral of St. Vibiana was brilliant at 7:30 yesterday morning with that happiest of occasions, a wedding. The high contracting parties were John F. Moran, a well-known young gentleman of this city, and Miss Mollie Hogan, daughter of that sterling Irish Republican, John P. Hogan. The impressive ceremony was performed by Bishop Mora. A brilliant reception was held from 10 to 12 at the residence of the bride's parents, 8 East Seventh street. The presents were unusually numerous and elegant, and included a $500 silver breakfast set and a horse and buggy from the bride's parents; a superb solid mahogany chamber set from the groom's mother, and much bonide.

COUNCIL.

The Main Street Railroad Franchise Discussed.

CITY TAX COLLECTOR PARCELS O. K.

An Electric Road for Seventh Street—The Police Get No Extra Pay—River Improvement Suggestions, Etc., Etc.

Council as a Committee of the Whole to consider franchise of Main street and Agricultural Park street-railroad, was called to order at 1:30 yesterday, present Councilmen Sinsabaugh, Breed, Goss, Frankenfeld, Stearns, Santee, Kuhrts, Jones and Perry. Mr. Stearns was made chairman.

Colonel J. O. Wheeler stated that a change in the original application for a franchise has been made, the company desiring to double-track from First street to Washington. He presented a petition from a majority of property owners along the east side of Main street from First to Washington, praying that the franchise be granted.

The ordinance was read.

Mr. Frankenfeld presented a remonstrance of property owners against the ordinance. Names on rolls are not allowed, and unless the road be put as near the center of the street as possible. The company has agreed to the latter clause.

Report of Board of Public Works made at last meeting was read.

Mr. Breed, Willard, Bullis and Biscailuz entered.

Mr. Breed offered an amendment to the report, providing that if paving or change of pavement be made, the company shall save correspondingly inside its track and two feet each side. The company agreed.

Mr. Kuhrts further amended that no turn-outs or switches shall be constructed, save where designated by Council, and no turn-out shall be nearer than twenty-five feet to the junction of any other street; and that the Surveyor shall designate the rate of curves in swinging road from one street to another and in sidings and switches.

Mr. Frankenfeld moved to refer the ordinance to the Board of Public Works to insert same clauses as in above franchise. Accepted and carried.

Committee of the Whole rose at 1:50, and the Board of Health held a session in the Mayor's courtroom; after which came a meeting of the Board of Library Regents.

The Council Session.

Council was called to order at 2:45, President Sinsabaugh in the chair.

Reading of minutes dispensed with.
